

Brokers Ireland Mortgage Survey Results

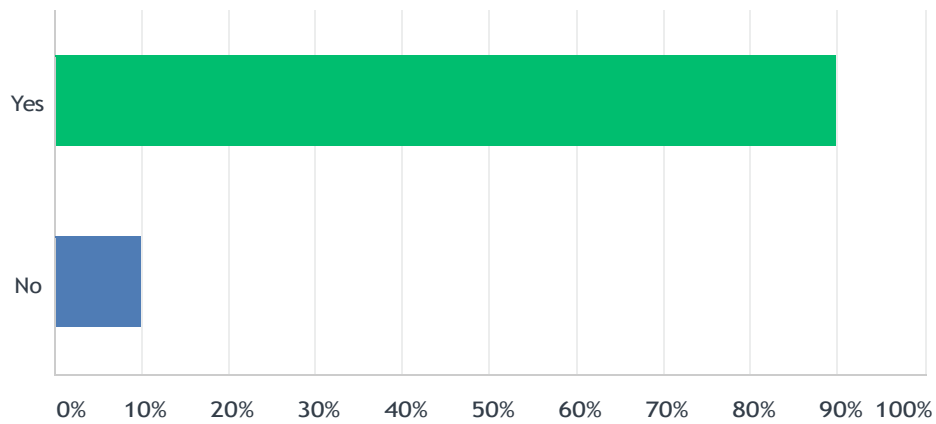

Q1 Has there been a drop in the number of new mortgage applications you are receiving?

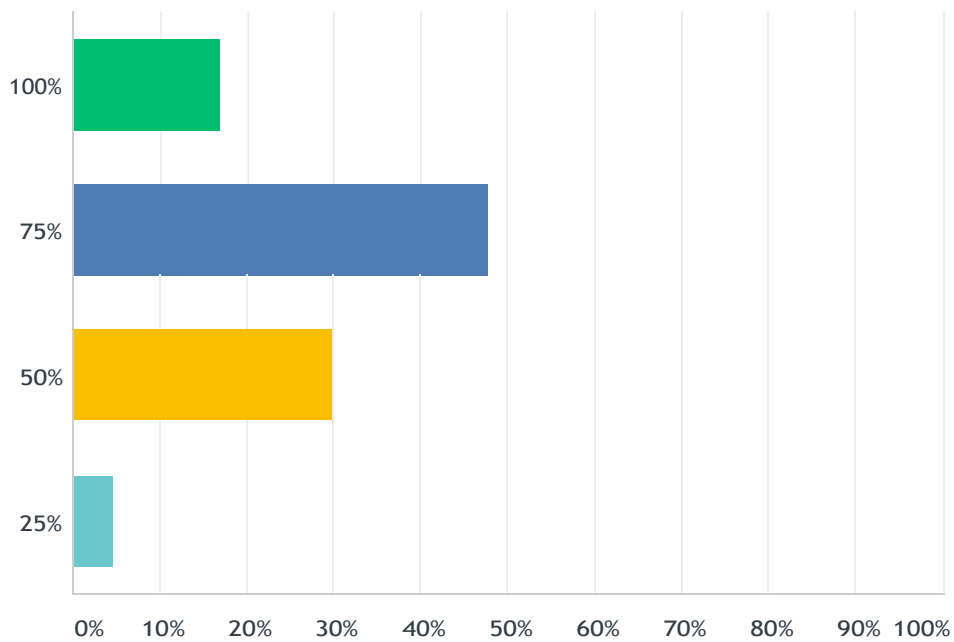

Q2 If there has been a drop in the number of mortgages applications you are receiving, by what percentage have they dropped?

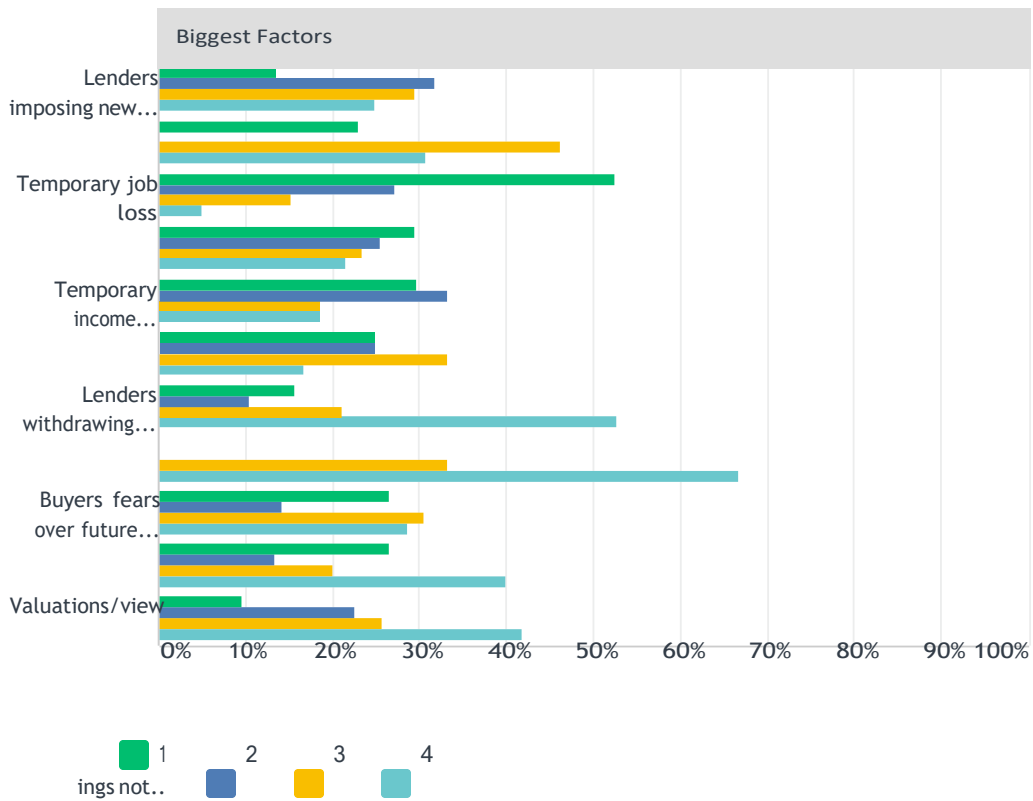

Q3 Has there been a drop in the number of new enquiries you are receiving?

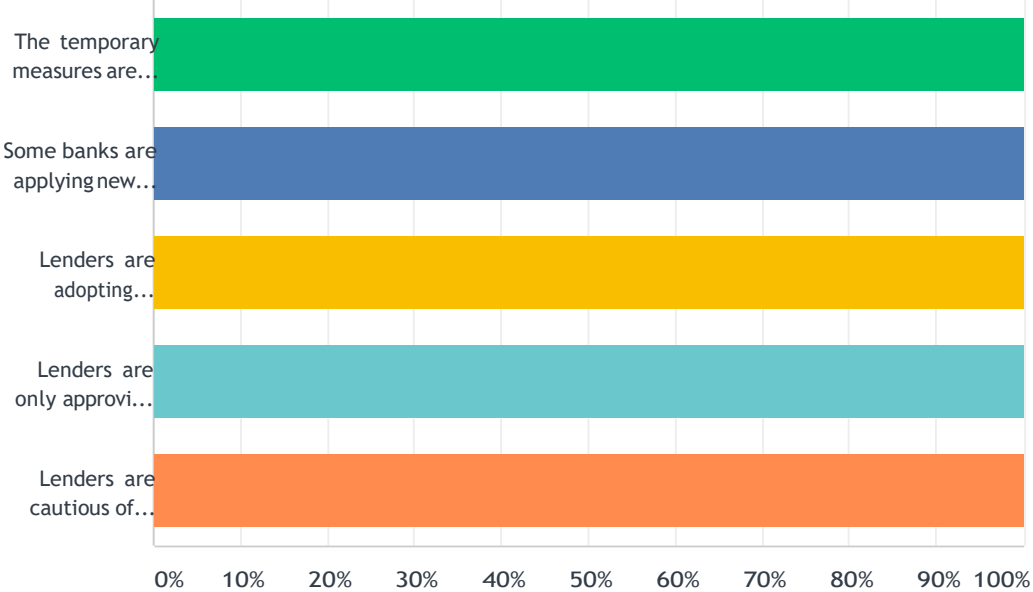

Q4 If there has been a drop in the number of enquiries you are receiving, by what percentage have they dropped?

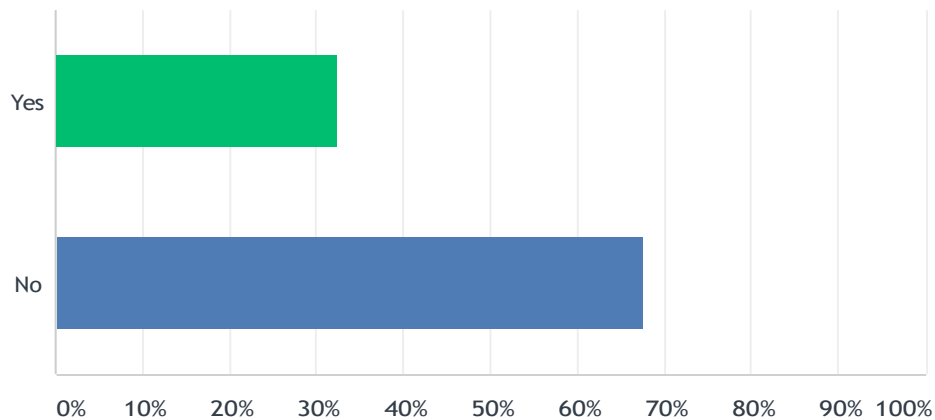

Q5 In order of priority please mark what you believe are the top four factors causing this drop off? Please mark 1 for the biggest factor and 2 for the next biggest etc.

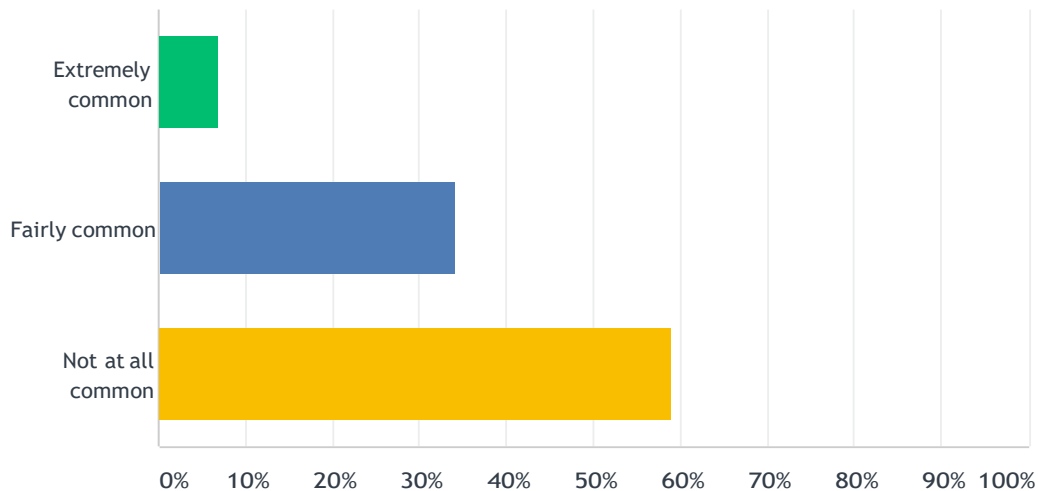

Q6 In the case of lenders imposing temporary restrictions to criteria, which of the following answers do you feel best describes the current situation. Please tick more than one option if you think appropriate.

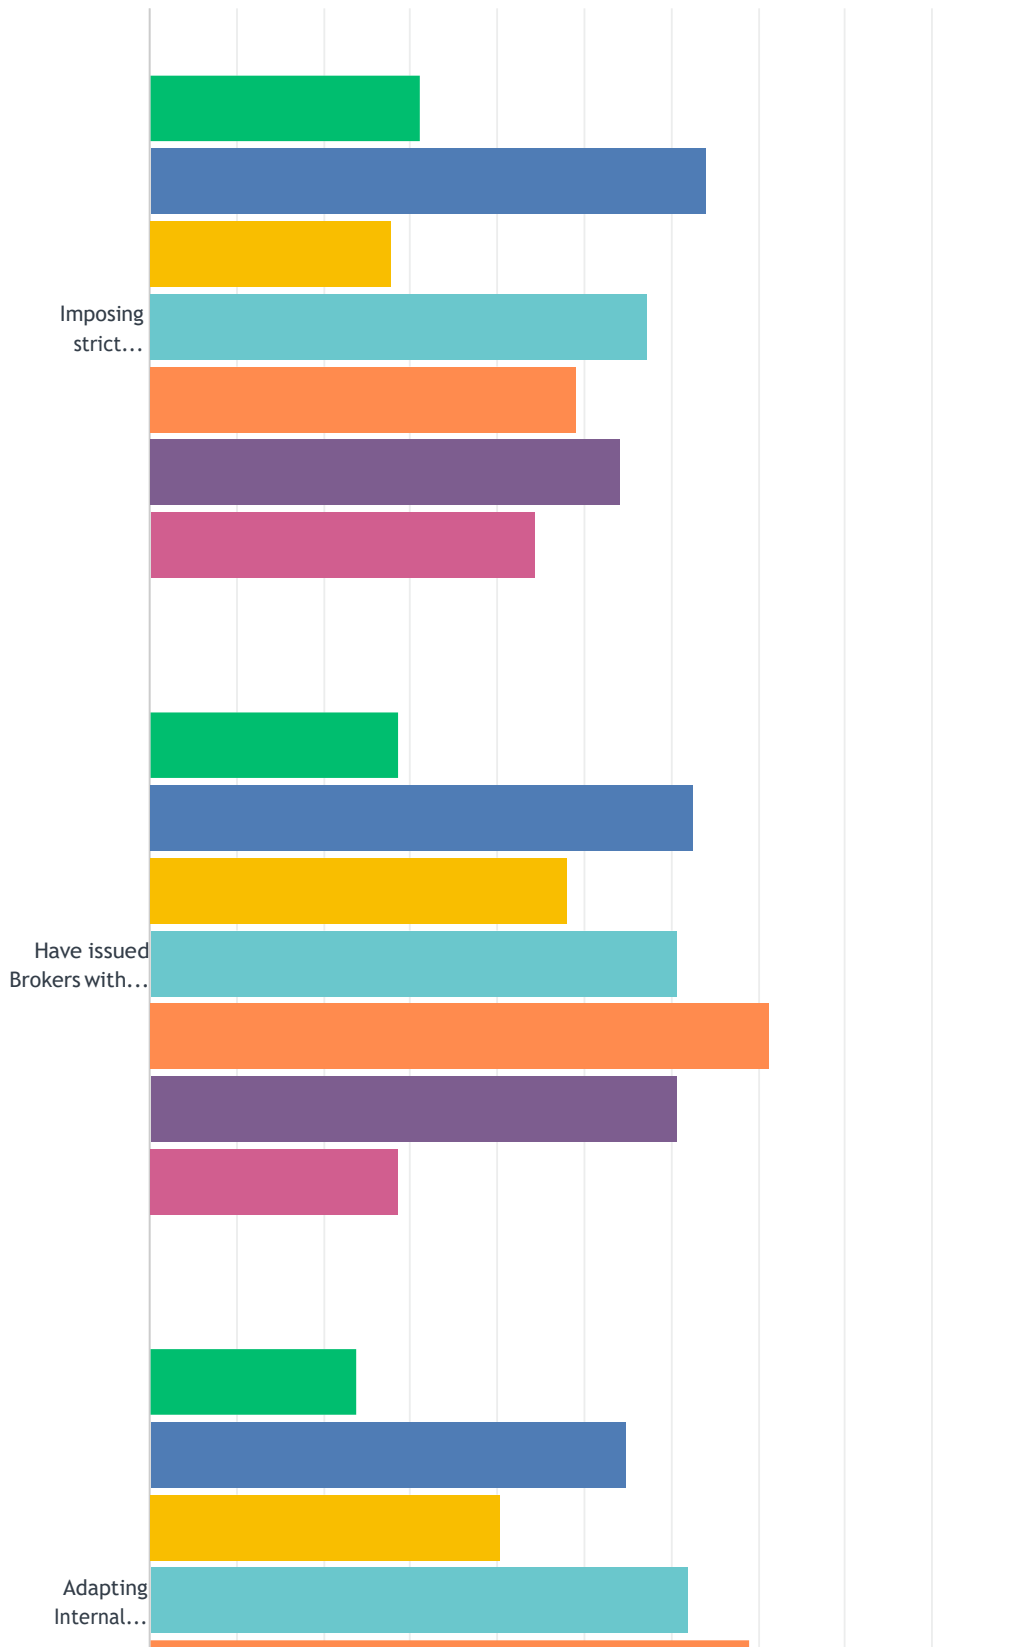

Q7 Are you seeing cases where, because of the temporary conditions, mortgage applicants who have signed contracts to buy a home now stand to lose their deposit?

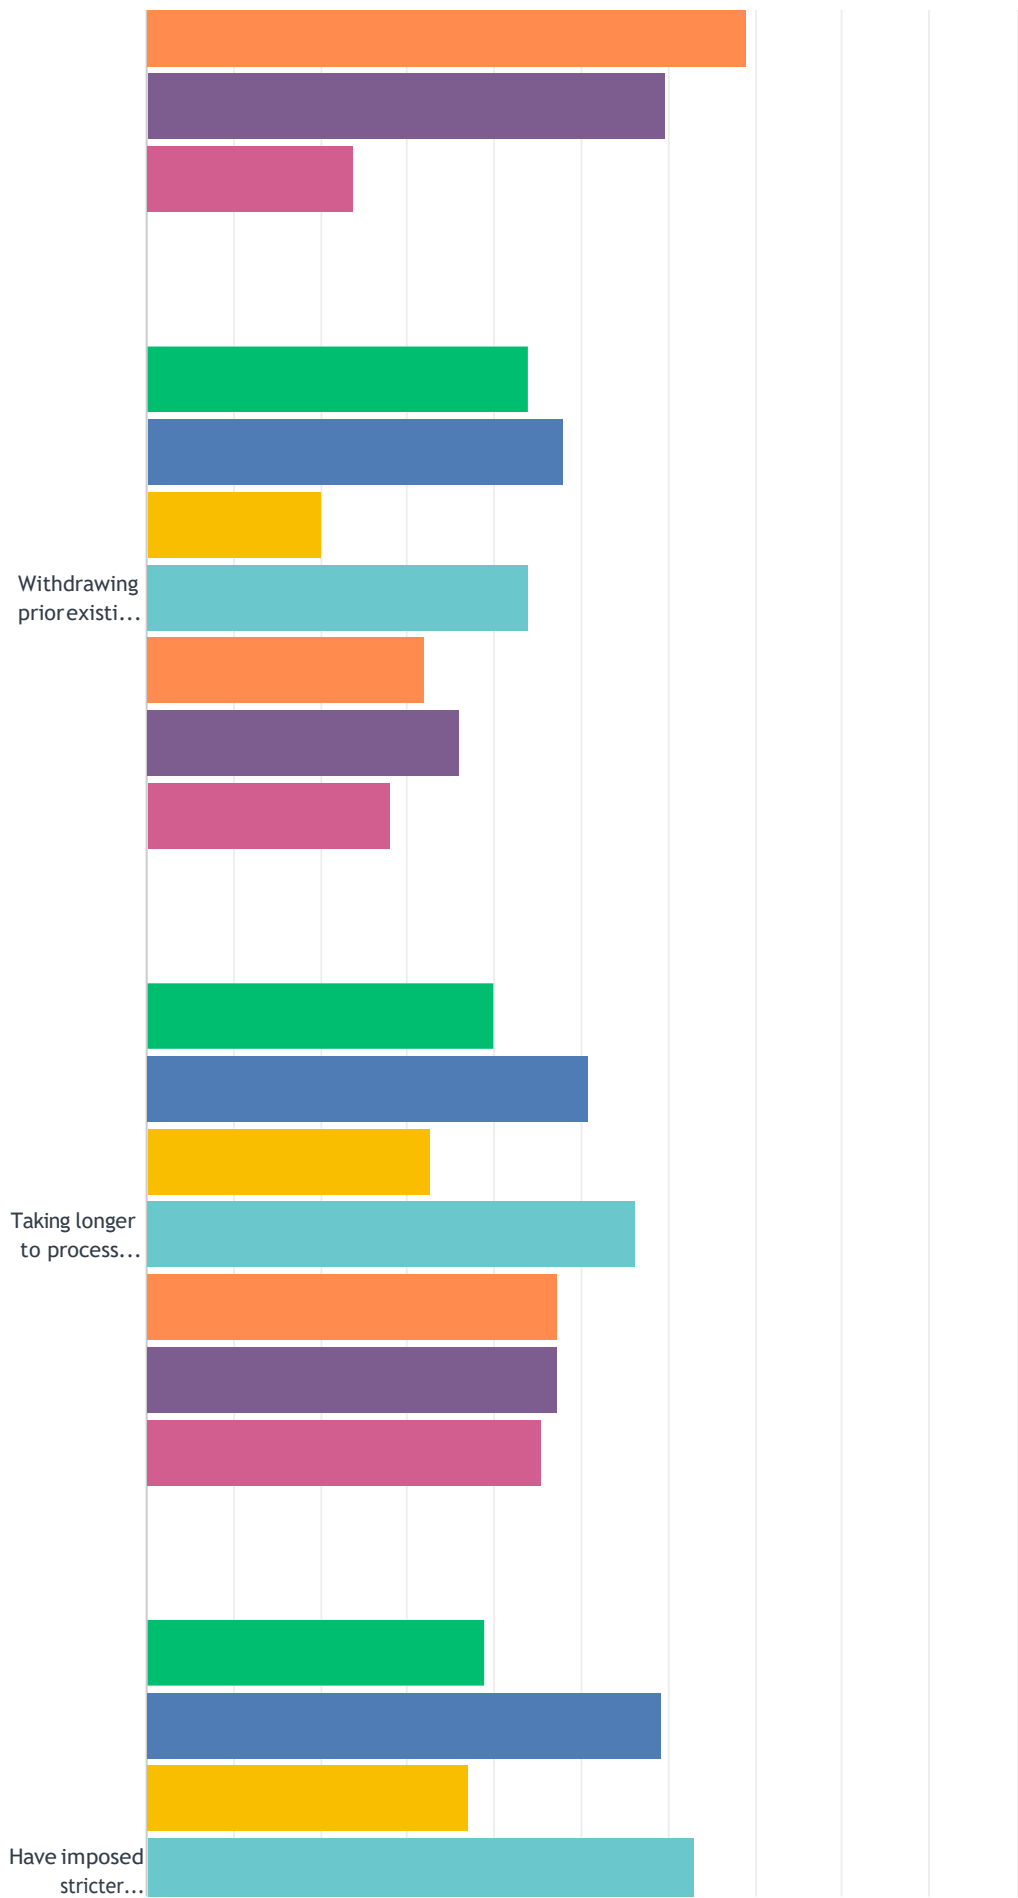

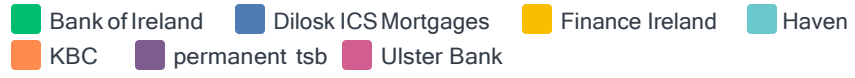

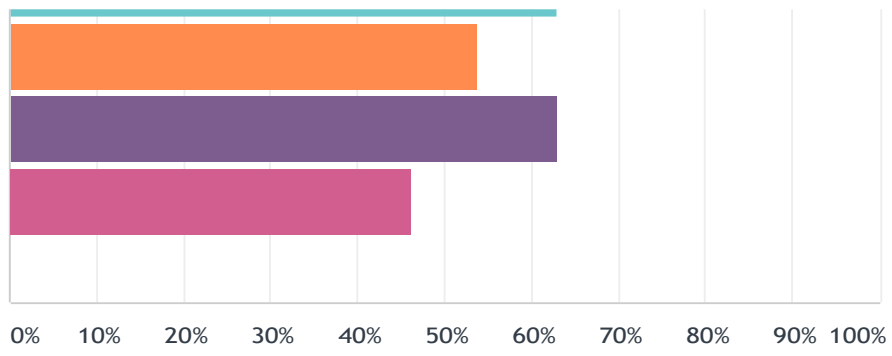

Q8 If yes, how prevalent would you say this is? Please tick the answer that best describes the situation.

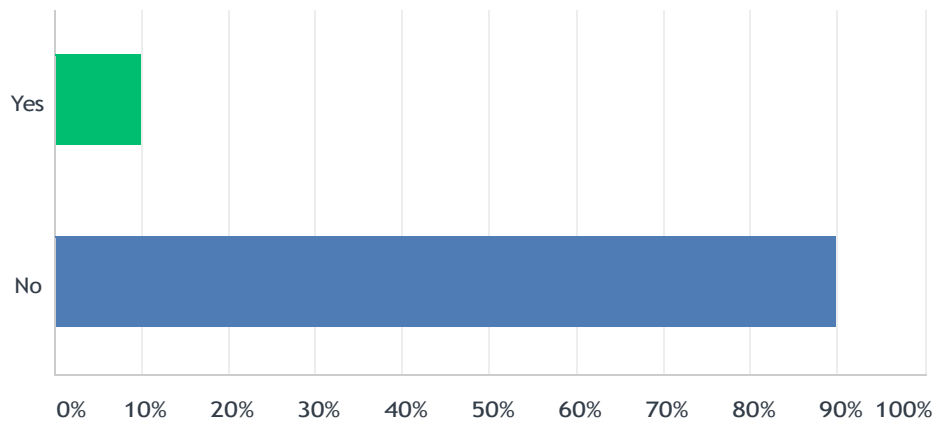

Q9 In relation to the lenders, which do you feel are applying the following

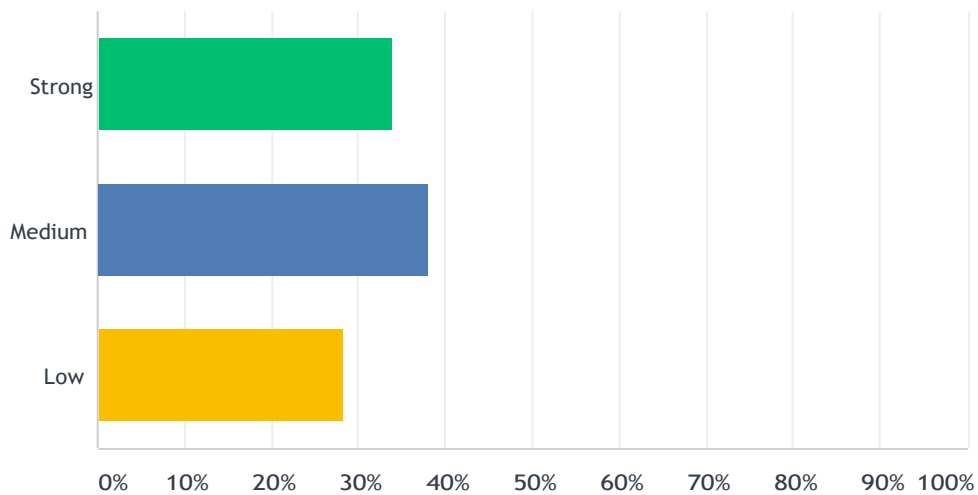

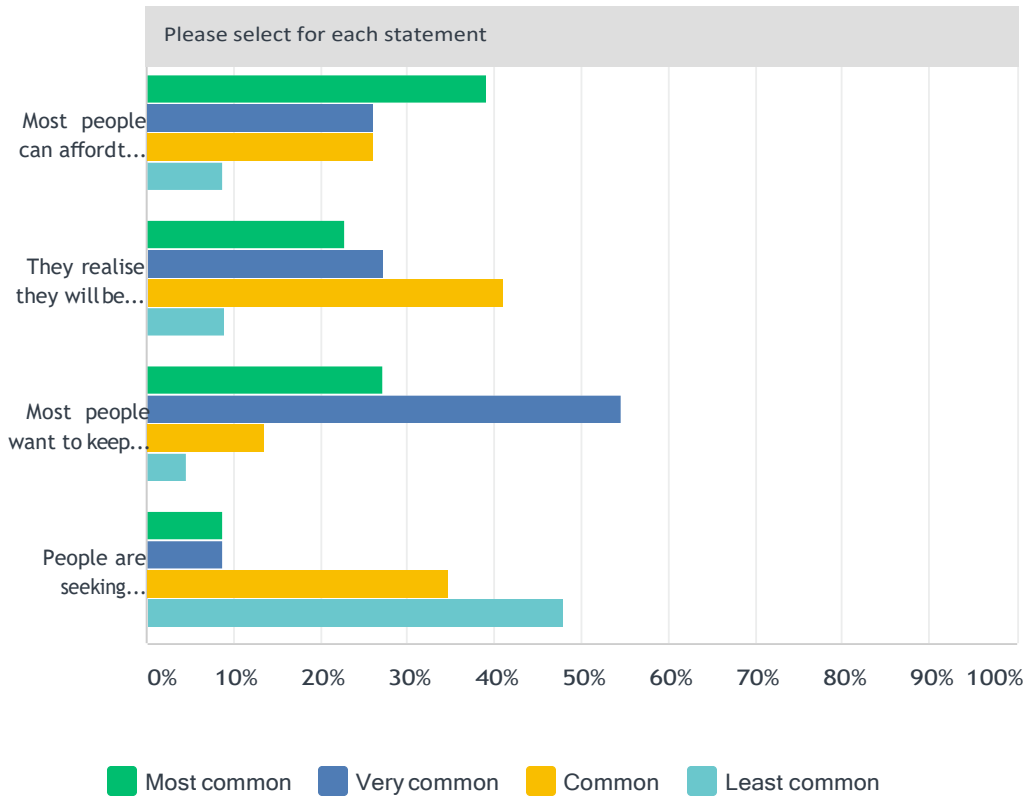

Q10 Do you feel the Lenders are differentiating their approach between FTB's and second subsequent buyers?

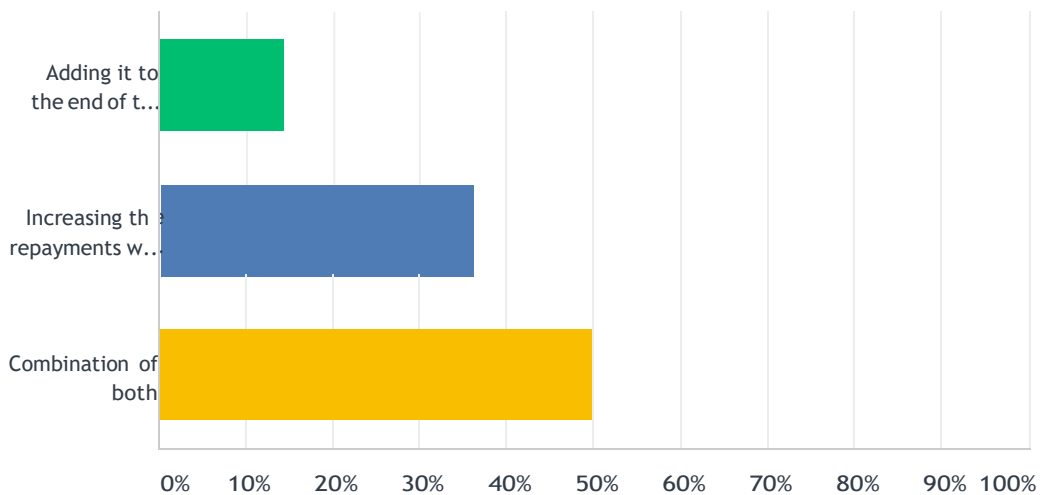

Q11 How would you describe the level of demand for the mortgage break announced by the IBPF?

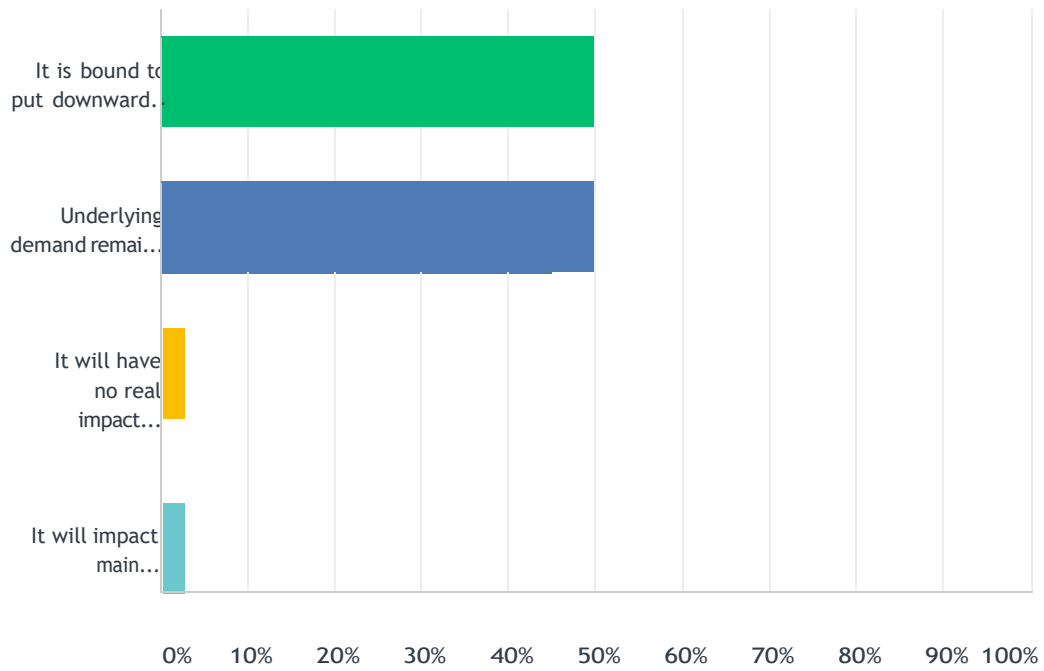

Q12 If you selected Low to question 11, why do you think this is? Please select multiple answers, as appropriate, with 1 representing the most common position, 2 the next and 3 the least common.

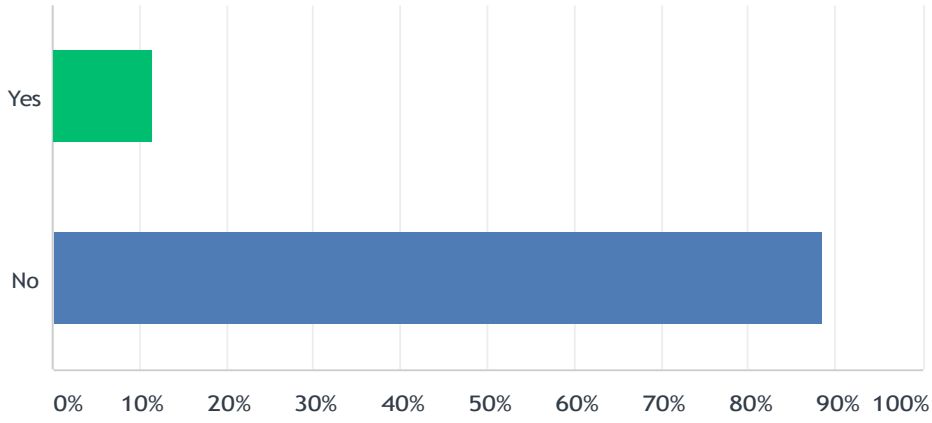

Q13 How are the banks dealing with deferred payments?

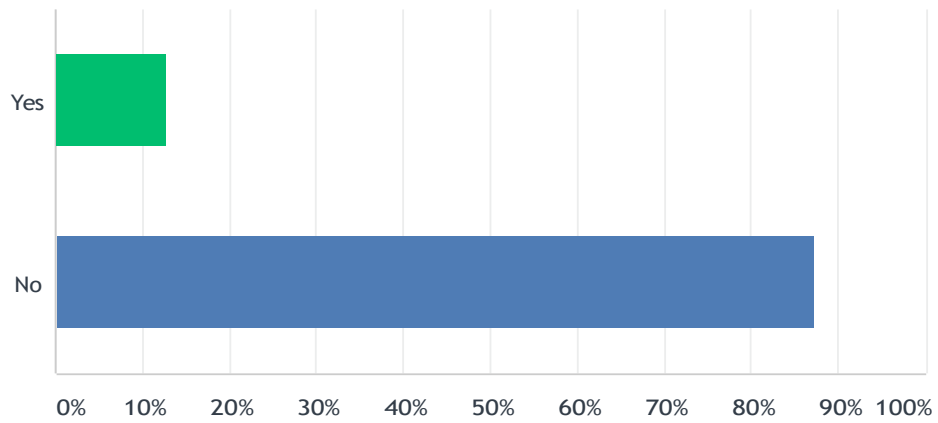

Q14 What impact do you anticipate the Covid-19 crisis will have on house prices? Please select, the answer that best describes your belief

Q15 Is there any evidence of cash buyers returning to the market?

Q16 Is there any evidence of additional investor activity in the market?

Q17 Is there any evidence of the switcher market increasing?

